"Women clad in aprons have traditionally prepared the Thanksgiving meal, and it is within our historical linkage to share our bounty."

Fall is undeniably here and with its arrival, there is much anticipation of upcoming holidays and events. From my little perch it's a busy time already, as I launch of the ninth TIE ONE ON DAY™!

What began as a personal campaign to enrich my family's holiday by "giving from the heart" to someone in need is now the inspiration to many for a new Thanksgiving tradition. Across the nation, those with an abundance of bounty and blessings are embracing TIE ONE ON DAY™ and seeking to share their good fortune through a gesture of kindness.

Participation in TIE ONE ON DAY™ is deliberately simple. Wrap a loaf of bread or other treat in domestic cloth and tuck in a sweet note. Then tie one on...an apron, of course! and deliver the wrapped bundle to someone...a neighbor, friend or charity...in need of physical or spiritual sustenance, a bit of recognition or just a kind word.

Just in time for Tie On On Day, my fortune cookie!

The TIE ONE ON DAY™ campaign is an annual opportunity to acknowledge one's good fortune, take note of someone with less than, and offer a gesture of kindness through the guise of an apron. A small bit of your time will make someone else's day brilliantly brighter. And the more who participate, the more who receive. Such is the win-win of TOOD.

From my heart to your pocket...apron, of course
